New Jersey State Library

The following General Public Laws, passed by the One Hundred and Sixteenth Legislature, are compiled in accordance with the act entitled "An act relative to public printing," approved March 23, 1883, which provides "that the laws shall be collated under two heads of General Public Acts, Special Public and Private Acts."

The General Public Laws are printed in the front part of the volume.

The Joint Resolutions and Proclamations by the Governor are placed next after the General Public Laws.

The Special Public and Private Acts follow in the order of their approval, and, with table of Contents and Index of all the laws, complete the same.

HENRY C. KELSEY,

Secretary of State.

CHAPTER CCXVII.

Supplement to an act entitled "An act concerning disorderly persons," approved April ninth, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That if any person shall be apprehended in any city of this state, having concealed upon his or her person any offensive weapon, then he or she shall be deemed and adjudged to be a disorderly person; provided, that this act shall not apply to sheriffs, under sheriffs, deputy sheriffs, constables, policemen or other peace officers, nor to any person having a written permit from the police authorities of such city to carry such weapon.

Persons carrying a concealed weapon shall be deemed a disorderly person.

Proviso.

2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 29, 1892.
