THE ORDINANCES

OF THE

CITY OF NORFOLK

WITH THE

AMENDED CHARTER

AND AN

APPENDIX

CONTAINING SPECIAL ORDINANCES, ACTS OF THE ASSEMBLY OF VIRGINIA RELATING TO THE CITY GOVERNMENT, ETC.

1894

NORFOLK, VA.:

W. T. BARRON & CO., PRINTERS, BINDERS, PUBLISHERS.

1894.

Stand for public carts.

6. All public carts, drays or wagons shall stand, when not employed, on Roanoke square, or on Water street at or near its intersection with Commercial place ; and for a violation hereof the driver of such cart, dray or wagon, shall pay a fine of two dollars, one of which shall go to the informer.

Penalties.

7. Any person who shall violate any provision of this ordinance, where no other penalty is imposed, shall pay a fine of not less than five nor more than twenty dollars.

Collector to advertise expiration of licenses.

8. The collector shall advertise, for three days, in two of the daily papers published in the city, prior to the first days of January, April, July and October, the fact that licences are required to be renewed on those dates, as herein provided.

CHAPTER VIII.

CARRYING CONCEALED WEAPONS.

Penalty for carrying concealed weapons.

1. If any person carry about his person, hid from common observation, any pistol, dirk, bowie-knife, razor, slungshot, or any weapon of the like kind, he shall be fined not less than twenty nor more than one hundred dollars, and such pistol, dirk, bowie knife, razor, slungshot, or any weapon of the like kind, may be seized by an officer, and, upon the conviction of the offender, the same shall be forfeited and sold, and the proceeds accounted for and paid over by the police justice to the city of Norfolk ; provided, that this ordinance shall not apply to any police officer, town or city sergeant, constable, sheriff, conservator of the peace, or collecting officer, while in the discharge of his official duty.

Exceptions.

CHAPTER IX.

CEMETERIES—CEDAR GROVE AND ELMWOOD.

Grounds set apart for burying the dead; unlawful to bury elsewhere.

1. The public burying grounds, known as Cedar Grove and Elmwood cemeteries, are hereby set apart for the burying of the dead ; and it shall not be lawful to bury the body of any person within the limits of the city, except in the said cemeteries, or such other burying grounds as the councils may establish and set apart for that purpose.

Cemeteries to be divided into lots by superintendent and record of same kept.

2. The said cemeteries shall be divided by the superintendent into lots of suitable and uniform size, with alleys and cross alleys, and ornamented with trees. The superintendent shall keep a record of the lots, so that the same may be known and easily found, should the boundaries become obliterated, and each lot shall have a separate number, and his record
