—OF THE—

CITY OF PLAINFIELD,

NEW JERSEY,

IN FORCE, MAY 9TH, 1902.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY OF THE COMMON COUNCIL.

PLAINFIELD, N. J.:
THE DAILY PRESS PRINT.

not more than thirty minutes in each direction over the extension herein authorized, from the time in the morning when the cars begin running on the other lines of said company in the City of Plainfield until eleven o'clock P. M. When the gross earnings upon the extension herein authorized shall amount to fifteen dollars per car per day, the cars shall be run upon the same schedule as that in operation upon the other lines in this city.

Sec. 7. The said company shall within thirty days next after the passage of this ordinance, file with the City Clerk its acceptance of said ordinance, including all the agreements, terms, provisions, restrictions, and regulations and every one thereof in said ordinance contained, which said acceptance shall be under the corporate seal of said company, and shall be signed by the president of said company; and in default of filing of such acceptance within the time limited aforesaid it shall be understood and held that said company declines to accept the same, and thereupon all rights, powers and privileges to them granted thereby shall forever cease and be at an end in the same manner and with the same effect as if this ordinance had never been passed.

Sec. 8. That the said company shall not run its cars at a greater speed than four miles per hour, during the hours between 8 o'clock A. M. and 5 o'clock P. M., on days in which school is in session on Arlington avenue between West Fourth and West Fifth streets.

Approved November 4, 1899.

An Ordinance Concerning Firearms and Other Deadly Weapons.

The Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, by their Common Council, do enact as follows:

Section 1. That no person shall fire or discharge any gun, fowling piece or firearms within the limits of the City of Plainfield, under a penalty of a fine not exceeding twenty dollars for every such offence; PROVIDED, however, that this section shall not apply to the use of such weapons at any military exercise or review, or target practice duly authorized by the military authority of this State, or by the Common Council, or the Mayor, or in the lawful defence of the person, family or property of any citizen; and PROVIDED further that this section shall not apply to the discharge of blank cartridges or charges of powder on the fourth day of July.

Sec. 2. That no person shall carry within the limits of the City of Plainfield concealed upon or about his person, any pistol, dirk, butcher or bowie knife, stiletto, dagger, sword, or spear in a cane, brass or metal knuckles, razor, slug shot, or other deadly weapon, under a penalty of a fine not exceeding twenty dollars for each and every offence; PROVIDED that this section shall not apply to officers of the law or persons who are threatened with bodily harm.

Approved April 9th, 1895.

An Ordinance to Provide for the Licensing of Auctioneers.

The Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, by their Common Council, do enact as follows:

Section 1. That licenses may be granted by the Common Council to such and so many persons of good moral character as the Common Council shall from time to time think proper, to carry on the trade or business or to act in the capacity of auctioneers.

Sec. 2. That every application for any such license shall be in writing signed by the applicant stating his place of residence and that he applies for license under the provisions of this ordinance.

Sec. 3. That no person shall carry on the trade or business of auctioneer in said city or sell or attempt to sell at public auction in said city any merchandise, goods, chattels or personal property whatsoever without being first licensed under the provisions of this ordinance under penalty of a fine not exceeding fifty dollars for each and every offence, but nothing in this ordinance contained shall be construed to apply to sales made at public auction under and by virtue of legal process.

Sec. 4. That every person licensed under this ordinance shall at the time of receiving such license pay therefor to the City Clerk to be by him paid to the City Treasurer for the use of the city the sum of twenty-five dollars, and in addition thereto the Clerk's fee of fifty cents for issuing said license.

Sec. 5. That every license granted under the provisions of this ordinance shall expire on the first day of March next following the date of such license.
