

REVISED CODE
OF
GENERAL ORDINANCES
OF THE
CITY OF RAHWAY, N. J.

IN FORCE OCTOBER 1, 1896

RAHWAY, N. J.
THE MERSHON COMPANY
1896

TITLE XXVII.

TO REGULATE THE KEEPING AND CONVEYING OF GUN-POWDER AND OTHER DANGEROUS MATERIALS.

Sec. 206. No person shall have, keep, or cause or permit to be kept, any quantity of gunpowder, exceeding thirty pounds in weight, in any building, dwelling house, store, storehouse, manufactory or other building, within the limits of the city, that is within one hundred feet of any other building, under a penalty of fifty (50) dollars for each offense.

No person shall convey or cause to be conveyed any gunpowder through any street or highway in the city in any cart, wagon, wheelbarrow or other mode of conveyance, unless said gunpowder be secured in tight casks, kegs or cases, well headed and hooped, under a penalty of twenty-five dollars for each offense.

Sec. 207. No cart, wagon or other vehicle, while employed in conveying gunpowder, shall be suffered to stop in any street or highway or in any other place, except at the place of loading or unloading, under a penalty of ten dollars for each offense to be forfeited and paid by the owner or driver thereof severally and respectively.

Sec. 208. No person shall keep for sale or shall store in any building or place, within the limits of the city, that is within five hundred feet of any other building, any camphene, spirit gas, burning fluid, kerosene or other dangerous or explosive materials exceeding forty gallons in quantity, under penalty of ten dollars for every day such materials shall be permitted to remain after notice to remove the same.

TITLE XXVIII.

RELATIVE TO LIGHTING BONFIRES AND THE DISCHARGE OF FIREARMS.

Sec. 209. That if any person between the hours of five P. M. and seven A. M. of any day, kindle or cause to be kindled, within the limits of the city, any bonfire or shall at any time of day or night fire or discharge within said city limits without written permission from the Mayor of the city, any cannon, gun, pistol or other firearms (except upon private property and premises of the party so discharging said firearms) the person so offending shall forfeit and pay for each and every such offense the sum of five dollars besides cost of conviction.

Sec. 210. That if any person shall at any time of day or night willfully set fire to or procure or caused to be burned any woods, marshes, meadows, or hedges within the limits of the city, whether the same be inclosed or not, such person so offending shall forfeit and pay for each and every offense the sum of five dollars, besides costs of conviction; provided nothing herein contained shall be construed to prohibit the owners of marshes and meadows from burning such marshes and meadows in the usual manner in which the same has been burnt heretofore.

TITLE XXIX.

RELATIVE TO DISEASED, DISABLED AND WORN-OUT ANIMALS.

Sec. 211. No person shall cause, suffer or permit any diseased, disabled or worn-out animal belonging to him, or under his charge or control to run at large in the city, under the penalty of ten dollars for each offense.

Sec. 212. No person shall cause or allow any animal belonging to him or under his control, having a contagious or infectious disease, to run at large in the city under a penalty of ten dollars for each offense.

TITLE XXX.

RELATING TO PUBLIC POUNDS.

Sec. 213. That pound masters, not exceeding in number two for each ward, shall be appointed whenever the Common Council shall see proper, who shall have the powers and perform the duties in this title hereinafter prescribed; said pound masters shall establish and keep a public pound in some convenient place in the ward for which they shall severally be appointed.

Sec. 214. That no horses, cattle, swine or geese shall run or go at large, or be tethered in the streets, lanes, alleys, wharves, commons, public parks, or squares or other public places within the limits of the city, and all horses, cattle, swine, or geese which shall be found so running, or going at large, or tethered, may be taken by any person or persons and driven to the public pound in the ward of the city in which they shall be found at large, and delivered to the custody of the pound master of such ward,
