

LD 3311
.M275
1839
Copy 1

Geo. B. Adams
Dec. 25. 1848

3781

THE LAWS
OF MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE.

MIDDLEBURY:
Printed at the Office of the PEOPLE'S PRESS.
1839.

017-22795

pense shall be a rule in the estimate of the damage ; otherwise, it shall be assessed according to discretion.

10. No repairs, additions or alterations shall be made in any room by any student or students, but at his or their own expense, and under the direction of the Inspector.

11. At the end of each quarter it shall be the duty of the Inspector to visit the rooms occupied by the students, to ascertain the damages which have been done in them during the quarter then ending, that the same may be assessed and charged respectively in the quarter-bills.

12. To prevent, as far as possible, the damages before enumerated, viz., breaking of glass, &c., the students shall not be permitted to play at ball, or use any other sport or diversion in or near the College buildings, by which the same may be exposed to injury, on penalty of being fined for the first offence, and suspended if the offence be often repeated.

CHAPTER VII.

OF CRIMES AND MISDEMEANORS.

1. If any student shall be guilty of blasphemy, or robbery, fornication, theft, forgery, duelling, or any other crime for which an infamous punishment may be inflicted by the laws of the State, he shall be expelled.

2. If any student shall be guilty of a profane oath, or profaning the name, word or ordinances of God, he shall be admonished, or punished, or otherwise, as the nature and circumstances of the offence may require.

3. If any student shall be guilty of fighting, striking, quarrelling, challenging, turbulent words or indecent and immodest behavior, fraud, lying, defamation, or any similar crimes or misdemeanors, he shall be punished by admonition, or other College punishment suited to the nature and demerit of the crime.

4. If any student shall be guilty of opening by pick-lock, false key, or other instrument, or breaking open the room, chest, desk, or any other place under lock and key, or otherwise secured, belonging to any other person, he shall make good all damages, and be punished by admonition or expulsion, as the nature of the offence may deserve.

5. If any student shall be guilty of an injury to a fellow-student, or to any other person within the town of Middlebury, upon complaint and proof thereof made to the President, he shall, with the advice of the Professors and Tutors, give judgment thereon, and order satisfaction to be made according to the nature of the offence or injury; which, if any student shall refuse to do, he shall be publicly admonished; and if, after admonition, he persist in such refusal, he shall be dismissed. If any student shall be guilty of any abusive speech or behavior towards his fellow-students, or towards any other person, he may be punished as the offence may require.

6. The President, a Professor or a Tutor shall have authority to break open and enter any College room, or study, or any room in the village occupied by a student, at all times, at discretion. And if any student shall refuse to admit any member of the Faculty into his room or study, or to assist in suppressing any disorder, or to give evidence respecting any matter under examination, when, in any of those cases required, or shall falsely declare himself ignorant of the matter, he may be punished by admonition, rustication, or expulsion, as the circumstances of the crime may require.

7. If any student, without leave obtained of the President, a Professor or a Tutor, shall go out of the town of Middlebury, or beyond the place allowed him, or shall not return by the appointed time, he may be punished by fine, admonition, or otherwise, according to the degree and circumstances of the offence.

8. No student, without leave of the President, shall, in term-time, put himself under the instruction of any person, not an officer of the College, on penalty of admonition, suspension or rustication. Nor shall any student, without special permission, undertake to give stated instruction, during term-time.

9. No student shall, at any time, carry into either College building any wine, brandy, or other spirituous liquor, unless he have permission from a College officer. Nor shall any student resort to any tavern, store, shop, or cellar to drink any liquors of this description.

10. No student, without permission from the President, shall publicly exhibit any original or selected composition within five miles of the College.

11. No student is allowed to keep any kind of fire-arms or gunpowder in his room or in any part of the College buildings, nor to fire a gun or pistol within or near said buildings.

12. No student shall attend any dancing-school in Middlebury, in term-time, without permission.

13. No student shall play at cards, nor keep in his room any implements used in games of chance. And should any persist in the practice, after admonition, they shall be suspended or rusticated, according to the aggravation of the offence.

14. If any student shall be guilty of drunkenness, he shall be punished according to the circumstances of the offence.

15. If any student shall familiarly associate himself with vile, idle, dissolute persons, or shall admit such persons into his room, and shall persist therein after warning given by any of the Faculty of the College to avoid them, he may be punished as his offence shall require.

16. If any combination or agreement to do any unlawful act, or to forbear compliance with any injunction from