Commercial Reports.

The Chamber of Commerce is in receipt of dispatches announcing that the Assembly Elder arrived at San Francisco on Thursday. Her sailing on the return voyage has been postponed until Monday, the 27th.

The British ship Viola, from this port Sept. 28, 1878, for Liverpool, arrived yesterday, and is expected to depart, in about again, and at the dock.

A steamship Oregon sailed from San Francisco, for Astoria and Portland, at noon on Thursday. The Great Republic sailed on the same day, for Astoria and Portland.

Another steamer Bremen.

Old-time citizens of Astoria will remember the intrusion of a crowd on the joint ownership of a house between Capt. Wain and W. H.

Twight. A somewhat similar plot of interest was recently decided in India. It seemed that four men, partners in business, bought several bales of India rug, and also some cotton that the rats might do destroy the cotton they purchased a rat.

It was agreed that each of the four should take a particular leg of the rat; and the rat, when taken, was found to be dead. The rat was found to be dead.
