

h, sand, rock, stones, dust, matter that may have accumulated on her, or their said building from the line of said property street.

section shall not apply to : use in the course of receipt, Lamp posts or hydrants; the outer side of the sidewalk the same; 4th, Water- the accommodation of the ing used and provided for e construction or repair of structure ; provided, such py more than half of the nt of such building. Any any street or sidewalk with cause the same to be com- keep a light or lights burn- the place where the obstrucpersons violating this or- viction thereof, be pun- exceeding fifty dollars, or by l of Alameda county not ays, or by both such fine

ORDINANCES AT LARGE.

of Alameda do ordain as owning or having the con- per of any horse, sheep, w, or other animal of the any such animal to run at upon, any public street of exceeding five days, or by down such fine and im- prisonment.

CONCERNING CONCEALED WEAPONS.

The People of the Town of Alameda do ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. It shall be unlawful for anyone, not being a public officer, or not having a permit from the President of the Board of Trustees, countersigned by the Chief of Police, to wear or carry concealed weapons about his person in the Town of Alameda, or any pistol, slungshot, brass or iron knuckles, or iron bars such as are usually carried by Chinamen, sand clubs, dirk or bowie knife, or dangerous or deadly weapon.

SEC. 2. The President of the Board of Trustees may grant written permission to any peaceable person, whose profession or occupation may require him to be out at late hours of the night, to carry concealed deadly weapons for his own protection. Such permit shall be countersigned by the Chief of Police before it shall be issued, and the Chief of Police shall number the same and keep a registered list of the persons to whom issued, with their residences and occupations.

SEC. 3. Any person violating this ordinance shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the jail of Alameda county not exceeding fifty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

CONCERNING WAGON TIRES.

The People of the Town of Alameda do ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. No person shall use or employ, upon any of the streets within the Town of Alameda, any passed September 19,

No. 144, p
November
1877; No.
passed Octo
1877; No.
July 16, 18
Ordinance
nance No.

Mr. EDIT
by what on
this opport
facts come
I hope wi
resident of
few days
pect for a
aside, and
another ren
better mal
ber of lots
course, sell
fectly will
for his mat
self correct
person won
the true s

FRIGIDAL.

WHOLE NUMBER 660

LITERATURE FOR BOYS

RUSSELL H. COOL

10017

D. B. COOPER,

First National Gold Bank, - San Francisco
First National Bank, - - - - New York
First National Bank, - - - - London

I will now state that I made a miraculous cure of the worst cases of skin disease known. The patient, a man forty years old; had suffered fifteen years.

appearance. Had had the attention of fifteen di-physicians, who prescribed the best remedies for the profession, such as iodide potassium, arsenic, hyposulphate, sarsaparilla, etc. Had paid $500 medical treatments, with out little relief. I pressed him to use the Cuticura Resolvent internally, Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally. He did so conscientiously every day. The skin on his head, and many other parts of his body, which presented

LITERATURE FOR BOYS

LITERATURE FOR BOYS

ANNALS OF THE ENTOMOLOGICAL SOCIETY OF AMERICA

"There's one thing you mustn't forget, Tom."

"Don't forget to go to the help office and get me up a stool. The new girl is good."

For nothing, and the old one can't do everything. Black or white, young or old, man or woman, I don't care, only send me up in the impression of me will be? I should

At length the last bracelet was clasped, the last touch given, and refining jewelry was from the mirror, with a radiant face, Emma turned and ran up to the nursery to order the children dressed for company and then to speak with the boys, and—it must be confessed—not a little with Mr. Vincent.

the tutor—who was always at her service for such exercise.

There was a gentleman, savory, odor penetrating the house, when she came down and set out the wine and ice and made a few amendments to the table. Before Alice died she had painted an exquisite ebony

Arthur Maxwell, nursing meanwhile, placed with the nupkin designed for Mrs.

artistic and pretty everything was, and deciding that that gentleman's first impres-

She looked at her watch—five minutes past three. Then she went softly to the end of the hall and listened to the lively chatter in the kitchen. She could hear Mar-

LITERATURE FOR BOYS

The old-fashioned stories which the many boys of the last generation read have been succeeded by the many and fascinating criminal novel. In the old story-books obedience to parents were virtues, and that the Christian religion was not wholly devoted of music. If these views were not directly taught in the juvenile literature of our fathers' generation, they were certainly not taught in the juvenile literature of our fathers' generation.

from their story-books except perpetrated practices—nothing that was of any practical use, or that tended to develop in their plaints can be made of the dining hall now read by all our boys, either openly or secretly. In these delightful stories no forms of profanity and slang are taught in the most effective way. The pleasures of profanity and highway robbery are most ness of gambling and fighting, and are here men of successful living are set forth in which