Charley Bowling and wife former residents of this county, but now of Ottawa county, visited here since our last issue.

Mr. J. B. Chapman, of Courtland, at one time a resident of this place, has been quite sick; but is now improving.

Carstensen and Cullers have a complete stock of blankets and robes. If you want anything in that line be sure to call and examine their goods.

G. C. Bonner has done some very satisfactory work in town this week repairing machines. He will be at the Valley House the first three days of next month.

Supt. Glasgow will soon issue a course of study for graded and district schools, and seek to have it adopted. Mr. Glasgow has progressive ideas and this is one of them, and ought to be carried out.

Are you going to paper your house? If so, go to G. W. White's Drug Store and see the elegant stock of Wall Paper, just received. Also a full line of the unequalled Brazilian Pebble Spectacles, always on hand.

Farm for Sale.

A first class 120-acre stock farm, close to Scandia, All fenced. 130 acres cultivated, 70 more can be cultivated. For particulars call at Journal office. Terms easy.

Attention Ladies.

The celebrated sewing machine repairer, G. C. Bonner, will be at the Valley House the first three days of Feb. '04. Leave orders or bring machines. Also oil and needles for all kinds of machines.

Several citizens of the upper end of Big Bend were before the commissioners this week asking for an iron bridge across the river at Warwick. It would cost about $12,000. A bridge there would be a good thing for that section, and in time it will be built; but times are pretty close now and it is hardly likely it can be done this year.

Notice of Election.

Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the Scandia Electric Light & Power Company will be held on Tuesday, January 12th, at 10 o'clock, at the Courtland Hotel, in the city of Scandia, Kansas. The business of the meeting will be to elect directors for the year 1904, and to transact such other business as may come before the board.

W. W. Weston, Cashier.

School begins next Monday morning.

Mrs. J. F. Hallenbeck has been quite sick for several days.

The boys whooped it up to the newly married last Wednesday evening.

Freddy Woods, the young son of J. F. Woods of Chicago, arrived in Scandia last Monday evening on a visit.

We noticed Robt. Wood and wife, old residents of this county, but now of Gove county, in town this week.

W. A. Bird has suffered very much the last three weeks with a felon on his thumb. He will lose a portion of the member.

Mr. R. Couchman, an old friend of the JOURNAL, goes to Thomas county this week where he will in the future make his home.

The JOURNAL has read with satisfaction and approval the action of the county clerk in the convention at Topeka last week. They resolved that the present method of assessment is a fraud and a delusion. They demanded that concerted action be taken to secure the assessment of property at its true value. This, they rightly argued, would add more than treble the amount of taxable property and correspondingly reduce the rate of assessment. All are vitally interested in seeing this object attained.

Farm Loans.

Plenty of money to loan on farms. No delay. Low interest. Terms to suit. Call on J. B. Smith, Scandia, Kas.

Next Monday the new county officers go in. The offices to be filled are county treasurer, county clerk, sheriff, register of deeds, commissioner of first district, surveyor and coroner. The treasurer and coroner succeeded themselves.

The retiring officers are men who have filled their respective offices two terms. They go back to private life with the good will and respect of the people of the county. They will all go upon their farms. Mr. Swartz near Byron, Mr. Mosher Rydall, and Mr. Galloway in Courtland. Mr. Price the retiring surveyor is the only one who will continue to live in town. Of the new officers Mr. Kuchera and Dr. White will succeed themselves. Mr. Kuchera's second term will not begin until October; but he is among the new officials, and Dr. White will succeed themselves. In fact the Dr. always sits on a corpse with such satisfaction that if dead men could vote he would carry them solid. They are all, except White, farmers; and, if they accept county affairs as well as the farmers who are just stepping out, no fault can be found.

The Beckwith Oak is an all right stove, better than a bare altar. You can save the price of the stove in your coal bill.—Carstensen & Cullers.

A representative of the Santa Fe was before the commissioners last Tuesday asking that the assessment of that road for 1893 be based on the valuation of the road. He asked that because the board of railroad assessors in 1893 filed their report two months after the law says it must be filed. The failure of the board, who were populists, to file the assessment according to law is occasioning a vast amount of trouble and will lead to considerable litigation in order to collect taxes. The board concluded to take no action in the matter, but will tell some other county begins suit to collect and then abide the decision. The Santa Fe is in hard lines and may not be able to pay its taxes.

Notice to my Patron!

I have changed my location from Norway to Scandia. My old friends and patrons will find me in my new office over the Farmers and Merchants bank, where I will be glad to meet them.

Dr. V. ANDERSON.

At the residence of the groom's parents, last Wednesday evening at half past seven o'clock, Mr. John Olson and Miss Annie Anderson were united in marriage, in the presence of relatives and intimate friends, the Rev. Windt officiating. The bride was attired in a costume of white cashmere with veil and flowers, and presented a charming appearance. She was at one time a resident of this county and her friends will be pleased to know she is again to make her home here. Mr. Olson is a young man of sterling qualities and has a host of friends who will join the JOURNAL in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Olson unbounded happiness.

Last Monday W. W. Hollebenbeck of this township, and Miss Nellie Williams, of near Republic, were united in marriage by Probate Judge Jacobus. The JOURNAL hopes that each succeeding New Year may bring to them more happiness and contentment than the first, and that they may enjoy prosperity together.

F. F. Leewick, of this place, and Miss Eva Buchner, of Courtland, were married last Tuesday evening. Mr. Leewick is well-known here, having resided here a long time. The bride, is a very estimable lady, a niece of Mr. R. Buchner, of Courtland township. They have the good wishes of a large circle of friends.

The drawing at Wheeler's took place last Tuesday. The lucky numbers were held by J. W. Amos, who drew the gold watch and chain, Miss Georgia Sheldon drew a toilet case, Miss Minnie Nelson a music box and Mat Mahan, a toilet case.

Mrs. C. E. Wheeler and son went to Kansas City yesterday morning to visit Mrs. Frank Mowey. We predict that C. E. will follow before a week passes, if he is as lonesome as he looks.

As chairman of the state board of charities Mrs. Lease helped to cure numerous and sundry persons out of jobs, and did it with great glee. Now when she is fired she puts us in mind of Dennis the bangerman, who had "sweat" off of people of all ages, sexes and conditions, and never missed an opportunity to boast of it; but when he came to be "worked off" he set up the worst blubbering ever heard in Newgate.

If there is a dollar in circulation that will buy less than another dollar, the poor man always gets the poor dollar and generally pays the value of a good dollar for it.

The persistent cough which usually follows an attack of the grip can be permanently "sweated off" by taking Chamberlain's cough remedy. W. A. McGuire of McKay, Ohio, says: "La Grippe left me with a severe cough. After using several different medicines without relief, I tried Chamberlain's cough remedy, which effected a permanent cure. I have also found it to be without an equal for children, when troubled with colds or croup. 45 and 50 cent bottles for sale at all druggists."

"During the epidemic of a grippé Chamberlain's Cough Remedy took the lead here and was much better liked than other cough medicine." H. M. Bangs, druggist, Chatsworth, Ill. The grip is much the same as a very severe cold and requires precisely the same treatment. This remedy is prompt and effective and will prevent any tendency of the disease toward pneumonia. For sale by all druggists.

Lost from my home a small black female dog with tan feet, answers to the name of Gyp. Any information would be gladly received.
